

Local Housing Allowance

Working out your allowance
if you are aged under 25

Local Housing Allowance is a new way of working out new claims for Housing Benefit for tenants renting accommodation from a private landlord. It also affects tenants already getting Housing Benefit who move into accommodation rented from a private landlord. Local Housing Allowance is being introduced on 7 April, 2008. If you live in council accommodation or other social housing, Local Housing Allowance will not affect you.

To work out how much benefit you might get you need to find out what Local Housing Allowance rate your benefit will be based on.

If you are aged under 25, are single and do not live with any dependants, you can only get the Local Housing Allowance shared room rate. You can find out what the shared room rate is by ringing us on 01827 709540, calling in to Marmion House where the current rates will be displayed, or via the website – www.tamworth.gov.uk

You also need to find out if you can get the full amount of benefit. The amount of benefit you can get may be affected by:

- any money you have coming in
- any savings you have
- how much your rent is
- if you share paying the rent with someone else

For more information about this, please get in touch with us at the address below.

Example:

Marcus is single. He is aged 23.

He is entitled to one bedroom for himself. As he is under 25, he is entitled to the Local Housing Allowance shared room rate.

There are extra rules if you are:

- a care leaver aged under 22
- severely disabled

For more information about these, please contact us at the address below.

Joint tenants

If you are a joint tenant this might affect the benefit you can get. For more information about joint tenants, please get in touch with us at the address below.

What if my rent is less than the Local Housing Allowance rate that applies to me?

If your rent is up to £15 less than the Local Housing Allowance rate that applies to you, any benefit you might get will still be based on this rate. If your rent is more than £15 less than the Local Housing Allowance rate that applies to you, any benefit you may get will be based on a lower rate.

For details about this, please see HB(LHA)6: Local Housing Allowance: rights and responsibilities.
