Data Protection Act

The Data Protection Act 1998 places responsibilities on us to process personal data that we hold in a fair and proper way. The Act came into force on 1 March 2000 and regulates the use of personal data, including any data you supply on this application form.

The OPCC may contact other organisations (such as the Criminal Records Bureau, previous employer(s), educational establishments, etc) to check that factual information has been given on the application form. The information will be stored securely, both manually and electronically and destroyed after 12 months if your application is unsuccessful.

The Office is under a duty to protect funds it administers, and to this end may use the information you have provided as part of the recruitment process for the prevention and detection of fraud. It may also share this information with other bodies responsible for auditing or administering public funds for these purposes. As part of this ongoing responsibility Staffordshire Police, on behalf of the OPCC, participates in the Audit
